ATTENTION ALL POULTRY GROWERS

DID YOU KNOW THAT Contract Poultry Growers Association of the Virginias (CPGAVA) is the only grower association in Virginia or West Virginia that represents growers only?

Did you know that CPGAVA is currently developing a grower coop to purchase propane and possibly other high use or expensive items for growers at a discount?

Did you know that CPGAVA is and has been working for growers on grower issues for over five years?

Did you know that your family and neighbors are saving on their propane costs due to efforts by CPGAVA to increase competition among local suppliers?

Did you know that we are working on new ideas and processes to move poultry litter out of the Chesapeake Bay watershed benefiting all growers?

Did you know that the future of the poultry business rests in the hands of the growers and your input and guidance is vital to our industry?

CPGAVA is an association of, by, and for growers only to include chicken, turkey, and breeder operations. We do not accept membership or donations from any corporation or business therefore we are not influenced by companies.

Our monthly meetings are announced publicly on radio, TV and newspapers. Meetings are held in rotation in Rockingham, Shenandoah, and Page Counties in Virginia and Hardy, Pendleton, and Grant Counties in West Virginia.

Come join us and see what we are all about. All growers are welcome. For more information contact:
